

I am concerned about BPL interference with private equipment that also operates in that part of the spectrum. This includes, but is not limited to, ham radio and radio-controlled models.